December 7-10, 2017

Yaateeh runners! Welcome to the Four Corners Quad Keyah Marathon Series.

SCHEDULE OF RACES – A marathon and half marathon will be completed each day, Thursday through Sunday. All races begin at 8:30 a.m. daily. There is no course limit and all runners will have the chance to finish the race each day.

All races are timed by Josh Dally and his team at Rocky Mountain Timing.

LOCATION: The Four Corners Quad Keyah (“Four Lands” in the Navajo language) will be staged at the Four Corners Monument near Teec Nos Pos, Arizona on the Navajo Nation.

The closest airports are Cortez, Colorado (CEZ, 40 minutes), Durango, Colorado (DGO, two hours), Farmington, New Mexico (FMN, one hour) and Albuquerque, New Mexico (ABQ). Four Corners Monument is approximately four hours from Albuquerque or Flagstaff, two hours from Durango, six hours from Las Vegas and eight hours from Denver.

REGISTRATION – Online registration for the Marathon, Half Marathon and Relay is now open through Tuesday, December 5 at the NavajoYES website: www.navajoyes.org If there are still open slots, on-site will be held at the race site at Four Corners on race morning each day an hour prior to race time up to the start. Your registration includes a light pre-race breakfast each morning, on-course support (including energy gels, sweet and salty snacks and fresh fruit plus medical support), race swag, Four Corners poster, entertainment throughout the weekend and post-race food each day. All proceeds benefit youth adventure and community wellness programs on the Navajo Nation.

COURSE – Each day’s race will begin and end in the same distinct state, offering runners a chance to complete four marathons in four states in four days. Runners may choose to compete on a trail or a one-mile paved loop option each day. The routes make up a variety of terrain and scenery, and should offer runners a variety of experiences. Routes may be adjusted due to weather conditions and other factors.

The loop nature of the events will allow runners to have regular access to their personal kit and to course support – food, heated space, medical support, etc.

FOOD & ENTERTAINMENT – There will be post-race food each day in the main heated event tent at the Monument, including hot soup, pizza, build-your-own sandwiches, fresh fruit and salty snacks. We will also have a variety of live entertainment each day near the event tent, including the Ute Mountain Bear Dancers, native flute musician Jimmy Keith, blue artist Nolan James and the Four Corners Singers.

PACKET PICK-UP – Packet pick-up will be available beginning one hour before each race.

AWARDS & GEAR – All finishers receive a unique finisher’s medal for each race, depicting the state they completed that day. Runners receive a variety of swag: performance t-shirt, soft-spun cotton t-shirt, Navajo Parks Race Series glass, race poster and a Four Corners-themed Christmas ornament. There are not age-group and overall awards in the daily races.

BAGGAGE DROP – There will be no baggage drop, as runners begin and end at the Monument, where ample runner parking will be available.

LODGING – There are several lodging options within 40 minutes of the Monument. Ute Mountain Casino is the closest lodging to the 4C Monument, at about 30 minutes. Ute Mountain will be hosting festivities at the Monument on Saturday in recognition of their long-standing presence in the Four Corners region. Cortez, Colorado (40 minutes) has a host of lodging and dining options. Farmington, New Mexico is just over an hour from the Monument, with many food and lodging choices while Bluff, Utah has a small-town vibe, just under an hour from the Monument.
