

Hashkèniinii Mountain Bike Race

Navajo Mountain, Utah to Shonto, Arizona

Yaateeh riders! Welcome to the Hashkèniinii Bike Race!

REGISTRATION – Online registration for the race is now open through noon on Friday, May 31 at the NavajoYES website: www.navajoyes.org Registration includes Friday night's meal, a light Saturday morning breakfast, performance t-shirt, course support (food/hydration and medical), post-race meal, camping, shuttle for you and your bike to Navajo Mountain and race awards.

COURSE SUPPORT – The aid stations will be well-stocked with water, Tailwind, Honey Stinger gels and waffles, fresh fruit, nuts, sandwiches, sweet snacks and salties. Each station will also have limited medical support, cots and a pump. We will have a mechanical station with volunteer mechanic Manny Chavarria at the High School for your use on Friday; there will be no mechanical support on the course...so please be prepared.

We will have well-stocked aid stations throughout the course, roughly every 5-10 miles. These stations will include food, fluids, communication, transportation, light medical and minor mechanical.

FRIDAY EVENING – DINNER, MEETING & CAMPING – A pre-race dinner will be served beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the Shonto Prep High School cafeteria. There will be a course preview following dinner; this pre-race meeting is highly recommended for all riders. Camping will be available at the high school or at the nearby football field on Friday night. There will be access to indoor restrooms.

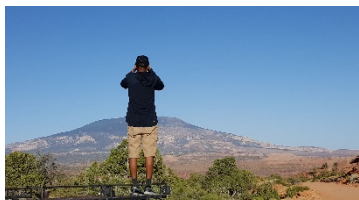

PACKET PICK-UP will be available on Friday at the high school and Saturday morning between 5:00-5:15 a.m. The caravan leaves Shonto at 5:30 a.m. Saturday morning and the race begins at 7:00 a.m. at Navajo Mountain High School.

ROUTES – The 52-mile route from Navajo Mountain to Shonto traverses some of the most stunning, rugged and remote country in the lower 48. Beginning at the base of Natsisaan at Navajo Mountain High School, the mountain fades quickly as you descend toward and then into the 1600-foot deep Paiute Canyon on a dirt road with significant exposure. This is not a technical descent. After climbing six miles out of the gorge, you begin a rolling, rugged ride across Paiute Mesa through some beautiful country among isolated family camps. Eventually, you will confront the very cool but a challenging sandy section through Sage Valley. After the climb out of Sage Valley, it's then past Tall Mountain and on, for the next 15 miles, toward Shonto. It is recommended that you ride with some of the basics to meet your personal needs – hydration, minor medical and mechanical kits, appropriate gear and helmet.

AWARDS – There will be awards for the top finishers. These included male/female, 1st through 3rd, overall male/female masters and male/female youth (18 and under)

The YOUTH RACE is a 12-mile bike ride beginning and ending at the high school, heading out of Shonto on road 6310 and looping back on 6321 for a cool but challenging ride. There is no fee for this event and first 50 participants earn a t-shirt. Participants also receive on-course and light finish line snacks. There are trophy awards for top three male and top three female finishers in Teen (age 13-18) and 12 & under divisions. There is also a FAMILY RIDE for any riders who want to complete the noncompetitive 12-mile route.

ROCK THE CANYON music and art festival is taking place in Shonto Canyon this weekend, so stop by there for more food, music and art....all Friday afternoon and into the night on Saturday.

The Hashk'eniinii Mountain Bike Race is co-sponsored by the Navajo Nation-based nonprofit organization Y.E.S. for Dine' Bikeyah (NavajoYES) and Shonto Prep School.
