Yá’át’ééh riders! Welcome to the Hashkènìinii Bike Race!

REGISTRATION – Online registration for the race is now open through noon on Thursday, May 28 at the NavajoYES website: www.navajoyes.org. Registration includes a performance t-shirt, pre-race dinner, course support (food/hydration and medical), finisher’s medal, post-race meal, live music, and available camping at Navajo Mountain (both Friday and/or Saturday nights).

COURSE SUPPORT – Several aid stations will be well-stocked with water, Tailwind Nutrition, Honey Stinger gels, fresh fruit, sandwiches, sweet snacks and salties. Each station will also have minor medical support, limited communication, vehicle support/sag and a pump. Please remember that you are responsible for your mechanical needs on the course. The aid stations will be placed throughout the route. There will be medical assistance available on the course.

FRIDAY EVENING CAMPING – Camping will be available on Friday night (location to be announced later). There will be access to composting toilets and a wash station at the campsite.

PACKET PICK-UP will be available Saturday morning between 8:00-8:45 a.m.

ROUTES – The route will be a 50+ mile road race between Tsaabiikiin (Inscription House) and Natsisaan (Navajo Mountain).
AWARDS – All riders will receive a finisher’s medal. There will be awards for the top finishers. These include overall male/female 1st through 3rd, male/female masters and male/female youth (18 and under)

ROCK THE CANYON music and art festival is taking place in Shonto Canyon during race weekend, so stop by there for more food, music and art….all Friday afternoon and into the night on Saturday.
